"I cannot live without books" –Thomas Jefferson

The Friends of the Library met Jan. 4 to select officers for 2012 and to make plans for the coming year. Cyndi Hoffman, the library director, announced that the free movie program is doing well and at a recent showing of "The Help" 72 people attended. She also announced that e-books are coming, hopefully, by the end of January. If anyone would like to give donations to help expand the collection please contact Cyndi at the library.

She also said that "Storytelling" started Friday and she is looking for volunteer readers.

At this point the program was taken over by Larry Rubendall who announced the slate of officers for 2012. Given there were no further candidates a vote was taken and passed.

The new officers are:

President – Larry Rubendall

Vice President – Lauvonda Lynn Young

Corresponding Secretary – Nancy Aasen

Recording Secretary – Sue Wagner

Treasurer – Euxine Faix

In addition the following are committee heads and chairs.

Book Sales – Victoria Gardiner

Communications and Publicity – Lauvonda Lynn Young

Communication and Publicity - Bill Jones (reporter of activities)

Fundraising Chair – Mona Orange

Membership – Marj Schurmann

Membership Outreach – Sandra Patterson

Program Chair – Janet Cox

Social Chair – Carol Tracy

The rest of the meeting was spent discussing the schedule of upcoming meetings throughout the year as well as plans for book sales and fundraisers.

We would also like to remind everyone that there is an ongoing book sale at the library. Come in and pick up some good reads for those cold winter months. The next meeting will be held on Feb. 1. See you at the library.
